

Homophones

Homophones are words that sound the same but are spelt differently and have different meanings.

For example:

See- I can see my friend walking towards me.

Sea- The sea is very rough today so I can't go for a swim.

Write out these sentences using the correct homophones;

:

1. We had to accurately (way, weigh) the ingredients.
2. I was (to, too, two) full to eat any more of my meal.
3. (Hour, Our) front door has been painted bright (blue, blew).
4. I asked my friend if he (would, wood) like to play at my house.
5. The dog was (there, they're, their) first pet.
6. I usually (right, write) to my pen pal once a month.
7. The policeman asked the witness if she recognised the man but she wasn't (shore, sure).
8. The girl (new, knew) it was wrong to (steal, steel) but couldn't help herself.
9. I caught (site, sight) of her in the distance.
10. I saw the stranger walk (passed, past) my house for the third time in a day.