

Onomatopoeia

Onomatopoeia is where a word sounds like the sound it makes, like buzz or plop.

This is your chance to invent your own onomatopoeic words. Invent one word for the sounds listed.

The sound made when:

- a) you walk through dry leaves
- b) the wind whistles through the trees
- c) chalk scrapes on a board
- d) you pull the ring on a can of fizzy drink
- e) you tear a piece of paper
- f) waves break on the shore
- g) lightening strikes

Now write 3 actions of your own with a word to describe each sound
